Strategy

As a non-fundamental policy, under normal circumstances, the Fund invests at least 80% of the value of its net assets, plus any borrowings for investment purposes, in equity securities of emerging market companies. The Adviser employs a fundamental, bottom-up investment process, based on first-hand research and disciplined company evaluation. Risk Considerations

Market Risk: Deteriorating market conditions might cause a general weakness in the market that reduces the prices, or yield, of securities in those markets in which the Fund invests.

Issuer Risk: The value of a security may decline for reasons directly related to the issuer, such as management performance, financial leverage and reduced demand for the issuer's goods or services.

Equity Securities Risk: The stock or other security of a company may not perform as well as expected, and may decrease in value, because of factors related to the company, to the industry in which the company is engaged, or to the market as a whole.

Management Risk: The Fund is subject to the risk that the Adviser or Subadviser may make poor security selections.

Emerging Markets Risk: The risks that apply to foreign investments are greater for securities of companies in emerging market countries because the countries may have less stable governments, more volatile currencies and less established markets.

Foreign Currency Exposure Risk: The value of foreign currencies relative to the U.S. Dollar fluctuates in response to market, economic, political, regulatory, geopolitical or other conditions. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may impact a Fund's returns more greatly to the extent the Fund does not hedge currency exposure or hedging techniques are unsuccessful.

Please read the prospectus for more detailed information regarding these and other risks.
