Investment Objective

To provide long-term growth of capital by investing primarily in common stocks. The Series is designed to allow the pursuit of opportunities in large, mid, and small size companies within the U.S.

May be Appropriate for Investors:

- Seeking high rates of return typically associated with the stock market over time

- Willing to accept the higher level of short-term volatility associated with the stock market

A Word About Risk

All investments involve risks, including possible loss of principal. As with any stock fund, the value of your investment will fluctuate in response to stock market movements. Investing in the Series will also involve a number of other risks, including issuer-specific risk, small-cap/mid-cap risk, and interest rate risk.

Prior to 07/10/2002, all performance figures reflect the performance of the Exeter Trust Company Group Trust for Employee Benefit Plans: All-Equity Collective Investment Trust fund (the "Collective"), which was managed by Manning & Napier Advisors, Inc. (predecessor to Manning & Napier Advisors, LLC), an affiliate of the distributor, and reorganized into the Manning & Napier Fund, Inc. Equity Series on 07/10/2002. The Collective was not open to the public generally or registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and the fees of the Collective were lower than the Series' fees. Therefore, historical performance of the Collective would have been lower if the Collective had been subject to the same fees as the Series.

The Russell 3000® Index (Russell 3000) is an unmanaged index that consists of 3,000 of the largest U.S. companies based on total market capitalization.
