NOTES

Annualized standard deviation is a statistical measure of the historical volatility of a mutual fund or portfolio. Beta is a historic measure of a portfolio's relative volatility, which is one of the measures of risk; a beta of 0.5 reflects half the market's volatility as represented by the strategy's primary benchmark, while a beta of 2 reflects twice the volatility. Debt/capital ratio is a measure of a company's financial leverage, calculated as the company's debt divided by its total capital. PEG ratio is a stock's price/earnings ratio divided by estimated earnings growth rate in the next year; a lower PEG indicates that less is being paid for each unit of earnings growth. ROIC (return on invested capital) measures how effectively a company uses the money investing in its operations, calculated as a company's net income minus any dividends divided by the company's total capital.

The S&P 500 Index is generally considered representative of the US stock market. Morningstar Large Blend Category funds are fairly representative of the overall US stock market in size, growth rates, and price. These portfolios tend to invest across the spectrum of US industries, and owing to their broad exposure, the portfolios' returns are often similar to those of the S&P 500 Index. Important Risk Information. An investment in the Fund(s) is subject to risks, and you could lose money on your investment in the Fund(s). There can be no assurance that the Fund(s) will achieve its investment objective. Your investment in the Fund(s) is not a deposit in a bank and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or any other government agency. The risks associated with an investment in the Fund(s) can increase during times of significant market volatility. The Fund(s) also has specific principal risks, which are described below. More detailed information regarding these risks can be found in the Fund's prospectus.

The principal risks of investing in the Calamos Select Fund include equity securities risk consisting of market prices declining in general, value stock risk consisting of the potential that a company will never reach its calculated intrinsic value, small and mid-sized company risk, foreign securities risk and portfolio selection risk. As a result of political or economic instability in foreign countries, there can be special risks associated with investing in foreign securities, including fluctuations in currency exchange rates, increased price volatility and difficulty obtaining information. In addition, emerging markets may present additional risk due to the potential for greater economic and political instability in less developed countries. Options risk is the Fund's ability to close out its position as a purchaser or seller of an over-the-counter or exchange-listed put or call option and is dependent, in part, upon the liquidity of the option market. There are significant differences between the securities and options markets that could result in an imperfect correlation among these markets, causing a given transaction not to achieve its objectives. The Fund's ability to utilize options successfully will depend on the ability of the Fund's investment adviser to predict pertinent market movements, which cannot be assured. More detailed information regarding these risks can be found in the Fund's prospectus.
