Fund Overview

Investment Goal: The fund seeks long-term capital appreciation.

Principal Investment Strategies:

The fund invests in securities that the portfolio management team believes are attractively valued with the potential to exceed investor expectations. Under normal circumstances, the fund invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks and other equity securities of small-capitalization U.S. companies. The fund defines small-capitalization companies as companies whose market capitalizations fall within the range of the Russell 2000[®] Value Index at the time of purchase, and invests primarily in equity securities of small-capitalization value companies as defined by the Russell 2000 Value Index. The market capitalization of the companies in the fund's portfolio and the Russell 2000 Value Index changes over time; the fund will not automatically sell or cease to purchase stock of a company it already owns just because the company's market capitalization changes.

Pacific Funds Small-Cap Value offers shareholders:

A Time-Tested Process

For more than 25 years, the investment team has managed institutional assets using a process rooted in fundamental analysis and designed to identify potential catalysts for a stock's positive relative performance.

Focused on Expectational Upside

The fund seeks to outperform its benchmark by investing in a mix of stocks the team believes is attractively valued and should provide a controlled level of risk in down markets.

Anchored in Style Purity

Stocks whose market capitalization falls within the range of the Russell 2000 Value Index, and are expected to achieve above-average returns relative to the fund's benchmark over a market cycle, will be selected for the fund.

Returns reflect reinvestment of dividends and distributions. Returns shown at net asset value (NAV) have all distributions reinvested. If a sales charge had been deducted, the results would have been lower. Class A and Advisor Class shares inception on 1/11/16. The Fund acquired the assets of the Rothschild U.S. Small-Cap Value Fund (the Predecessor Fund) in a reorganization transaction on 1/11/16. The Fund's objectives (goals), policies, guidelines, and restrictions are substantially the same as those of the Predecessor Fund. The performance figures shown for Class A and Advisor Class shares of the Fund reflect the historical performance of the then-existing Institutional Class shares of the Predecessor Fund for periods prior to 1/11/16. The performance figures for periods prior to 1/11/16 have not been adjusted to reflect fees and expenses of Class A and Advisor Class shares of the Fund, respectively. If these returns had been adjusted, then performance for the share classes could vary from the returns shown based on differences in their fee and expense structures. The Institutional Class shares of the Predecessor Fund commenced operations on 12/31/14.

¹Class A shares reflect the deduction of an up-front 4.25% sales load. Advisor Class shares are sold at net asset value (NAV) without an initial sales charge and do not include a CDSC. Performance reflects any applicable fee waivers and expense reimbursements. ²Measures the performance of the small-cap value segment of the U.S. equity universe. It includes those Russell 2000 companies with lower price-to-book ratios and lower forecasted growth values.

Indexes are unmanaged and cannot be invested in directly. Further, they hold no cash and incur no expenses.

Performance data quoted represents past performance, which does not guarantee future results. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost.

About Principal Risks: All investing involves risk, including the possible loss of the principal amount invested. Indexes are unmanaged and cannot be invested in directly. Further, they hold no cash and incur no expenses. There is no guarantee the Fund will achieve its investment goal. Equity securities tend to go up or down in value, sometimes rapidly and unpredictably. Small- and mid-capitalization companies may be more susceptible to liquidity risk and price volatility risk and more vulnerable to economic, market and industry changes than larger, more established companies.
