

Fund Objective

The State Street International Stock Selection Fund (the "Fund") seeks to provide long-term capital growth by investing primarily in securities of foreign issuers.

Process

The Fund will attempt to meet its objective through the active selection of equity securities. The Fund management team will concentrate investments in holdings that are composed of, but not limited to, countries included in the Morgan Stanley Capital International Europe, Australasia, Far East (MSCI EAFE®) Index. The fund's adviser employs a proprietary quantitative stock selection model. This model is intended to reflect the risk characteristics of the fund's benchmark, as well as determine the specific securities and quantities the fund purchases, holds and sells. The quantitative model allows the adviser to evaluate quickly each eligible security and then rank all eligible securities in the fund's investment universe in the order of their attractiveness as fund investments. The adviser also regularly reexamines the model and may make updates and adjustments to the economic and financial conditions and other quantitative metrics considered, and to the weightings among them.

Key Features

- Team based decision making by experienced investment professionals
- Broad exposure to MSCI EAFE Index
- Diversification across countries and sectors*
- Multi-factor approach to stock selection

Derivative investments may involve risks such as potential illiquidity of the markets and additional risk of loss of principal.

These investments may have difficulty in liquidating an investment position without taking a significant discount from current market value, which can be a significant problem with certain lightly traded securities.

Investments in mid-sized companies may involve greater risks than those in larger, better known companies, but may be less volatile than investments in smaller companies.

Companies with large market capitalizations go in and out of favor based on market and economic conditions. Larger companies tend to be less volatile than companies with smaller market capitalizations. In exchange for this potentially lower risk, the value of the security may not rise as much as companies with smaller market capitalizations.

Foreign investments involve greater risks than U.S. investments, including political and economic risks and the risk of currency fluctuations, all of which may be magnified in emerging markets.

Equity securities may fluctuate in value and can decline significantly in response to the activities of individual companies and general market and economic conditions.
