About the Fund

Investment Objective:

Seeks total return.

Reasons to Invest:

The Fund seeks to provide exposure to International stock markets with lower volatility than its stock market benchmark.

The Fund's strategy seeks to provide downside protection with upside potential through active stock selection, risk management and diversification.

Potential Advantages:

Experienced Management Team
AQR's core investment and research team has been together since the early 1990s.

Trading Infrastructure
Customized liquidity-providing algorithms seeking to minimize transaction costs.

Cutting Edge Research
AQR is a thought leader on low-risk, high-quality investing with an ongoing commitment to research and development.

Investment Approach

- The Fund pursues a “defensive” strategy that provides exposure to International stock markets with lower volatility and draw-downs relative to its stock market benchmark through active stock selection, risk management and diversification.
- The investment universe for the Fund is comprised of International equities, including large-cap, mid-cap and small-cap companies.
- The Fund seeks to invest in lower beta stocks of companies with stable businesses, high profitability, low operating and financial leverage, lower earnings-per-share variability and other measures of quality.
- These stocks generally are less volatile than the market average, and are expected to produce higher risk-adjusted returns over a full market cycle than market indexes.
- The Fund utilizes a proprietary optimization process and a number of sophisticated trading techniques to manage transaction costs.

PRINCIPAL RISKS

Foreign and Emerging Market investing involves special risks such as currency fluctuations and political uncertainty. Funds that emphasize investments in small and mid-cap companies generally will experience greater price volatility. The Adviser from time to time employs various hedging techniques, it is not possible to hedge fully or perfectly against any risk, and hedging entails its own costs.

An investment in the Fund is subject to risks, including the possibility that the value of the Fund's portfolio holdings may fluctuate in response to events specific to the companies in which the Fund invests, as well as economic, political or social events in the United States or abroad.

The Fund may attempt to increase its income or total return through the use of securities lending, and it may be subject to the possibility of additional loss as a result of this investment technique.

This Fund is not suitable for all investors. There are risks involved with investing including the possible loss of principal. Past performance does not guarantee future results. Diversification does not eliminate the risk of experiencing investment losses.
